XAVERIAN HIGH SCHOOL

HIS HOLINESS
POPE PAUL VI

As millions crowded the streets of New York, His Holiness Pope Paul VI made history on October 4, 1965 as the first Pontiff to visit America. The Holy Father's message of peace was carried to the International grounds of the United Nations where he delivered the major address of the day. Although his stay was brief, it will remain as a permanent memory for all those who witnessed any part of His historic journey.

VERY REVEREND BRYAN J. McENTEGART, D.D.
Archbishop of Brooklyn

Considering the great difficulties and obstacles involved, our shepherd has done an admirable job in the instruction of his flock for the use of the new liturgy.

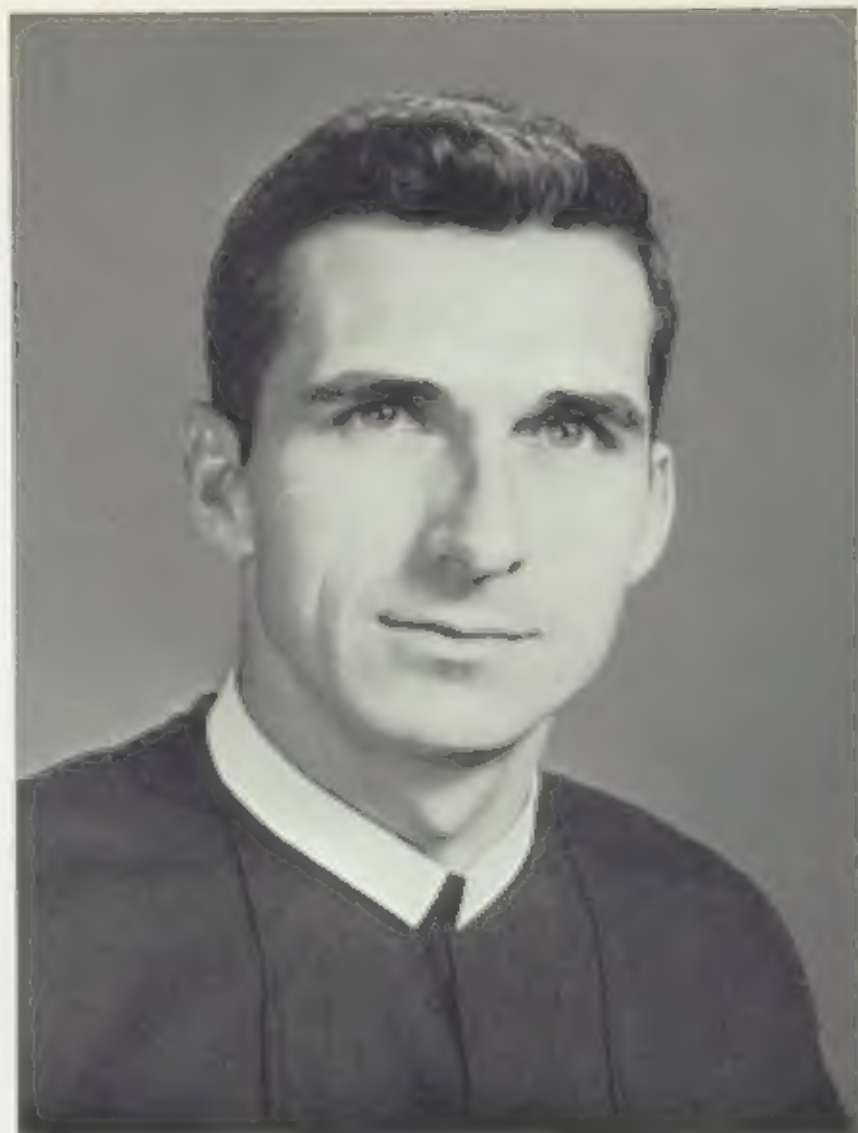

In recognition of his dynamic ecclesiastical leadership, Pope Paul VI has conferred upon him the title of archbishop. Xaverian High School joins with the Diocese of Brooklyn in expressing congratulations and best wishes for continued success in the service of Church and country.

Dedication

February marked the end of the first semester and the beginning of a new apostolate for Brother Regis. Though Xaverian experienced a year and a half of his teaching endeavors, Brother Regis left a lasting mark as a dedicated teacher, appreciated by his students and admired by all who witnessed his zealous work in his varied activities.

Brother Regis has been assigned to the arduous task of educating the native Indian boys at the Xaverian mission in Bolivia. Xaverian High School proudly joins with Mount Saint Joseph High School, the scene of Brother Regis' previous six years in the classroom, in extending sentiments of continued success in this new mission.

It is with pride and a most sincere gratitude for his many services to Xaverian, we, the Class of 1966, dedicate our Clipper to Brother Regis, C.F.X.

Office of the Principal

XAVERIAN HIGH SCHOOL—7100 SHORE ROAD, BROOKLYN, NEW YORK

Dear Graduates of 1966:

Xaverian High School is justifiably proud to call you her loyal and energetic sons. For the past four years we have provided you with the spiritual, intellectual, and extra-curricular environment to challenge you. You have manfully accepted this challenge. Your ability to plan prudently, to think thoughtfully, and to do dynamically is characteristic of your constructive leadership.

These traits should hold you in good stead to meet your future challenges with confidence and self-assurance. What you have bequeathed to our Xaverian community is everlasting.

We extend to each of you our personal best wishes in the Lord.

Sincerely yours,

Brother John C.F.X.
Brother John C.F.X.
Principal

BROTHER JOHN, C. F. X.
Principal

BROTHER KYRIN, C. F. X.
Assistant Principal

The man we went to when we needed discipline, the man we went to when we needed help, Brother Kyrin has become a respected and trusted friend to nearly everyone at X. H. S. More than to anyone else at school, we realize the great debt owed to Brother Kyrin for his time and effort on our behalf.

BROTHER BENEDICTUS, C. F. X.
Administrative Assistant
Religion, Mathematics

Brother Benedictus will leave Xaverian this year along with the Class of '66. He will go to Holy Name Elementary School in Brooklyn, where he will take on a new responsibility as principal. We want to thank him for his friendliness and aid to all the students, and we sincerely wish him good luck at his new task.

Silver Jubilarian

Xaverian High School has been fortunate since its inception, to have many wonderful educators on its staff. Brother August has been an outstanding teacher for the twenty-five years he has dedicated to Christ as a Xaverian Brother, and Xaverian students have gained much from his dedicated classroom work from the beginning of Xaverian in 1958.

Prior to Brother August's assignment at Xaverian, other schools that witnessed the work of this zealous religious were: Saint Joseph's School, Somerville, Mass., 1944-1947; Holy Cross School, Brooklyn, N.Y. 1947-1950; Mount Saint Joseph High School, Baltimore, Md. 1950-1951; Saint Joseph's Prep, Bardstown, Ky. 1951-1952; Flager High School, Louisville, Ky. 1952-1958.

Xaverian cannot fully express its gratitude to Brother August for his long years of service, but it can wish all of God's blessings to Brother August and many years of continued service to students in Xaverian High School and other Xaverian Brother schools.

DAVID JOSEPH NAMAN
President

As president of the Student Activities Council this year, Dave faithfully and consistently fulfilled his duties. Since he had served as Second Vice-President during his Junior year, Dave was well experienced for his job. He intends to take a Liberal Arts course at the State University at Stony Brook.

KENNETH MICHAEL JASINSKI
Vice-President

One of the busiest, most influential, and popular members of the Class of '66, Ken was active in sports, Sodality, academic clubs, and SAC throughout his four years at XHS. As Vice-President of SAC this year, Ken had to curtail his former activity on the Varsity Basketball team, but he took on new responsibilities as Senior Prom Committee Chairman and as President of the National Honor Society. Ken has certainly been a great asset to our class.

MARK NICKOLAS MORALES
Secretary

One of the most popular members of our class, Mark was an efficient Secretary of the Student Activities Council. His duties, which included writing correspondence for SAC and the minutes of the SAC meetings, were faithfully fulfilled.

EDWARD FADLO ASSILE
Treasurer

Ed certainly deserved his election as "Hardest Worker" in the Senior Poll. As Treasurer of SAC, Ed worked vigorously to raise the financial status of the Student Council. It was he who directed the Xaverian Brothers Auxiliary Drive to its huge success. Ed was also a two year member of the Dance Committee.

Committeemen

Athletics

RICHARD MICHAEL BEYER
Athletic Co-Chairman

As Athletic Co-Chairman, Rich was responsible for intramural sports and the newly instituted Xaverian-Nazareth Field Day. Needless to say, both were great successes, for Rich had been well prepared by his constant participation in sports throughout his four years at Xaverian.

ROBERT ANTHONY YONDOLA
Athletic Co-Chairman

Bob's consistent participation in intramural sports and inter-scholastic track helped to gain him his post as athletic Co-Chairman this year, and his experience served him well. In his job of coordinating intramurals, Bob was able to keep up spirit of competition throughout Xaverian.

JOHN BARRY LOWELL
Cultural Chairman

This year John expanded the Cultural Committee's activities by holding general book sales and by conducting most of the many assemblies during the year. In all, this year was one of the most culturally enriching in Xaverian's history.

Cultural

STEPHEN GLENN DALY
Publications Co-Chairman

When Steve took over as co-editor of the Local, he took over the responsibility of keeping the students informed of everything going on at Xaverian. He had great success as was evidenced by the more - than - usual regularity of the Local.

Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4... Honor Society 2... Local 3... Russian Club 2, 3, 4.

Publications

SALVATORE ANTHONY CHIARAMIDA
Publications Co-Chairman

As editor of the Local, Sal kept the student body well-informed on the latest happenings in S. A. C. and throughout the school. Next year he intends to study pre-med.

Social

JEFFREY FRANCIS SIRACUSE
Social Co-Chairman

Jeff's many varied activities reached a peak when he was appointed SAC's Social Co-Chairman. Well-experienced in SAC as president of his class, Jeff was ready for his difficult job. However, he overcame the difficulties and made this year one of XHS's most successful socially.

BARRY JOSEPH FITZPATRICK
Religious Co-Chairman

As the Religious Co-Chairman, Barry has been challenged with the task of helping to mold a truly Christian atmosphere within Xaverian High School. This present task apparently appeals very strongly to Barry, for he intends to become a Xaverian Brother.

VARSITY

This year's Clippers sailed through CHSAA opposition and arrived at a third place berth. Under the leadership of their coach, Mr. John Woods, and co-captains Jim Berg and Lou Dottrina, the Clippers replaced the advantage of height with speed, skill, and teamwork. John Conforti's spectacular shooting (27 points per game), Lou Dottrina's defense, Jim Berg's skill at rebounding, and the hard work of the rest of the team made 1965-66 an outstanding basketball season.

Cross Country

The scene is quiet and expectant as 350 Varsity tracksters await the deafening shot that will start them across a rugged 2 1/2 mile cross country run into the wilderness. As the starter raises the gun, every runner braces himself for a physical test of endurance which will send him through a course of hills and fields in which only the fittest will survive to a finish of a true athlete.

This scene, which takes place at least once a week at Van Courtland Park, is the setting for one of the best Cross Country teams Xaverian has ever had. The speedsters, under the direction of Mr. Frank McCartney, the Varsity track coach, placed in every meet in which they competed. The team consists of Frank Stellaccio (Captain), Ed Denesopolis (Co-Captain), Andy Fiore, Phil Turnbull, John Manza, Sal Santino, Jim Pensebane, Bill Corsi, Frank DiPaolo, and Leo Parascondola.

Living up to its tradition, Xaverian's Varsity Track Team has shown during the past season that it is a power to be reckoned with in any track meet. Against the toughest competition in the nation, Xaverian's thin-clads were able to score in almost every indoor meet including the Sectionals, the Catholic Champs, held at Madison Square Garden, and the New York University Meet. By the end of the indoor season, two long standing indoor records had fallen. Don Lyles set a new 60 yard high hurdles mark in an outstanding 7.8 seconds, and the indoor Distance Medley Relay record was established by the team of Frank DiPaolo, Ed Denesopolis, Mike Miglino, and Frank Stellaccio in a blistering 10:1.1.

The outdoor season brought out the best of the thin-clads. The team took a third place in the Catholic University Meet held in Washington, D.C., a fifth in the Xaverian Brothers Championship, and a third in the St. John's University Coaches Meet.

Special recognition goes to Dennis Petruzzì, Phil Turnbull, Sal Santino, Frank DiPaolo, John Manza, Leo Parascondola, Bob Corsi, Jim Pensebane, Frank Stellaccio, Ed Denesopolis, and Andy Fiore for their status as four-year members of the track team. Congratulations to Mr. Frank McCartney and to all the members of the team for a job well done.

XAVERIANS VARSITY BOWLING TEAM
Ralph Bartolomeo, Gerard Corpe, Ren Gaudio, Greg Garito, Frank Anthony.

BOWLING

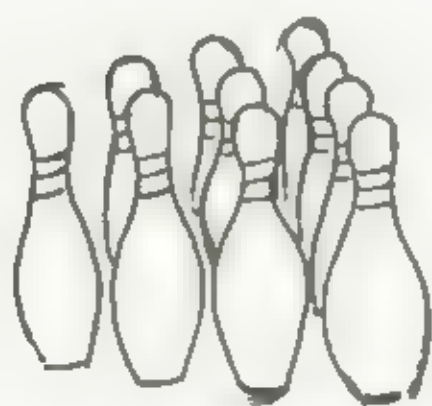

The Varsity Bowlers finished this 1966 season with a commendable third place finish. The keggers were led by captain Reynold Gaudio, the only four year veteran of Xaverian bowling, to a forty-one and nineteen record. In his four years of interscholastic competition, Gaudio has led the J. V. to a first place, and the Varsity to a first place and two third places. It must be said that both Gaudio and his team had a successful season.

Captain Ren Gaudio strikes again!

Varsity and JayVee bowlers compare scores, techniques, and harass the opposition in a close one.

TUMBLING

The watchful eyes of Mr. Sajecki glance proudly over his tumbling team.

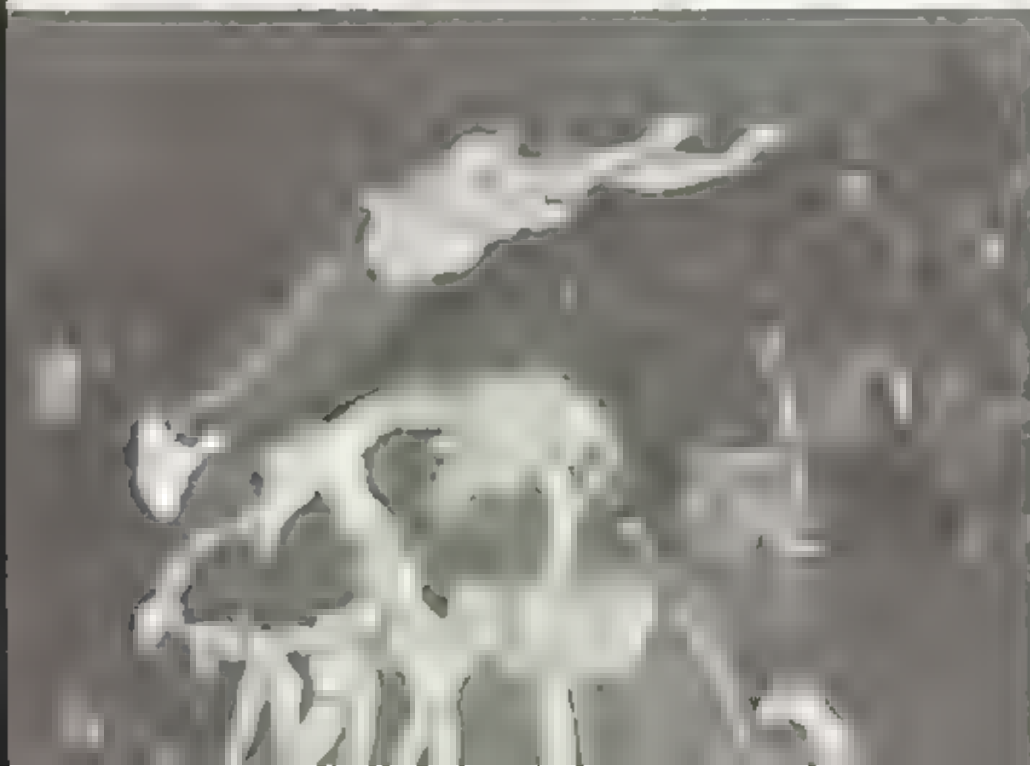

The high-flying tumbling team continues to entertain audiences at Columbia University, Madison Square Garden, on television, and in our very own Clipper gymnasium.

The team gained their skill and precision through a combination of hard practice and the infinite patience of Mr. Stanley Sajecki, their coach. The tumbling team is well-known and appreciated by audiences everywhere.

Intramurals

Football: The Outstanding Player, Mike Genduso lead Room 10 to their victory.

Volleyball: Jasinski, Guarinello, and DeStephano helped Room 11 to win the championship.

The regular intramural sports season met with significant success because of the widespread senior participation in the various fields.

The results of a years work were as follows: Football was won by Room 10. Basketball had two divisions, the winners being Rooms 10 and 11, Room 10 ran away with softball while Room 11 was busy winning volleyball. The seniors lost to the juniors in the Senior-Junior Swim Meet. The Phinques won the intramural bowling.

Basketball A: Bob Guardino led Room 10 to the championship

Basketball B: Don Weiss, Eli Dau, and Jerry Vella were responsible for Room 11's victory.

Softball: Chilton was the outstanding player for Room 10. He was aided by Kratchman

Swimming: Tom Quigley is considered the best swimmer in the school.

The first Xaverian-Nazareth Field Meet ended with an overwhelming victory for Xaverian. The overall Xaverian Meet score was a very impressive 1,428 points to Nazareth's 934, almost 500 points over Nazareth, a goal for future meets that will be difficult to surpass. The seniors held their end up with a 375 to 199 point win. The events and scores were:

	Xaverian	Nazareth
Basketball	67	61
Bowling	5	0
Football	0	12
Handball		2
Hockey	5
Softball	Forfeit win
Swimming	50	10

FOOTBALL: Caccese, DeVita, DeWolfe, Richards

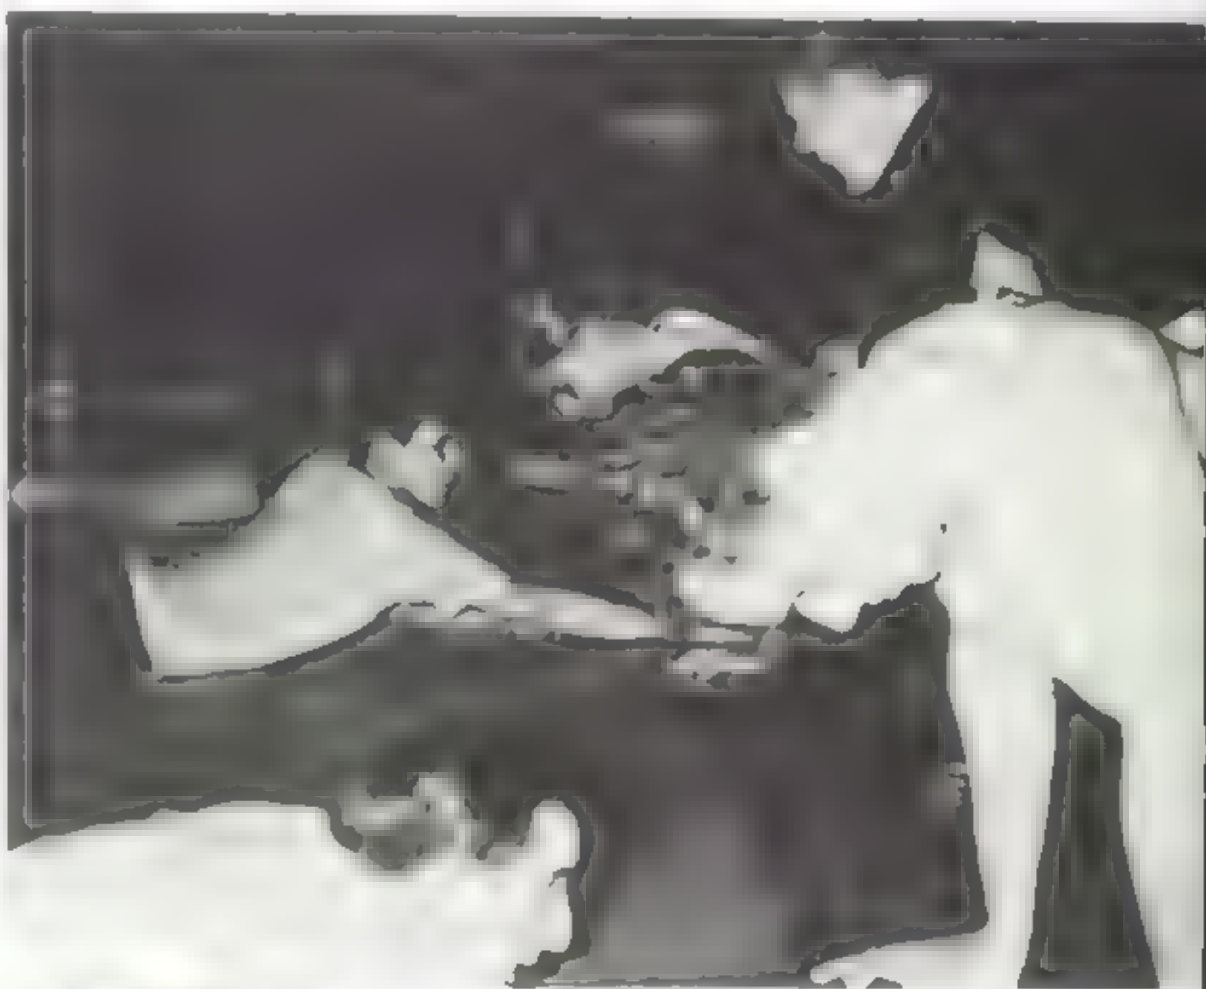

BASKETBALL: Hall, T. O'Brien, Nigro

Intramural Bowling: The Senior intramural bowling league ended this year with the first Bowling Hop held by the league. At the dance, the awards for excellence were given: the first place team was the Phinques with Tony Colantuono, Bart D'Ambra, and Ron Gaudio. Second place was taken by the Stoned Rollers with Ed Barone, Joe Turano, Fred Bevelacqua, and Vin Vivona. The individual winners were: Bill Parente had the high game of 223, Ron Gaudio's 175 was the league's highest, and Tony Colantuono ran away with the high series of 399. Gaudio also won the most improved award because of his raise in average from 150 to 175. The league secretary, Tony Colantuono, said that the overall league average was the highest ever for the senior class.

Student Activities Council

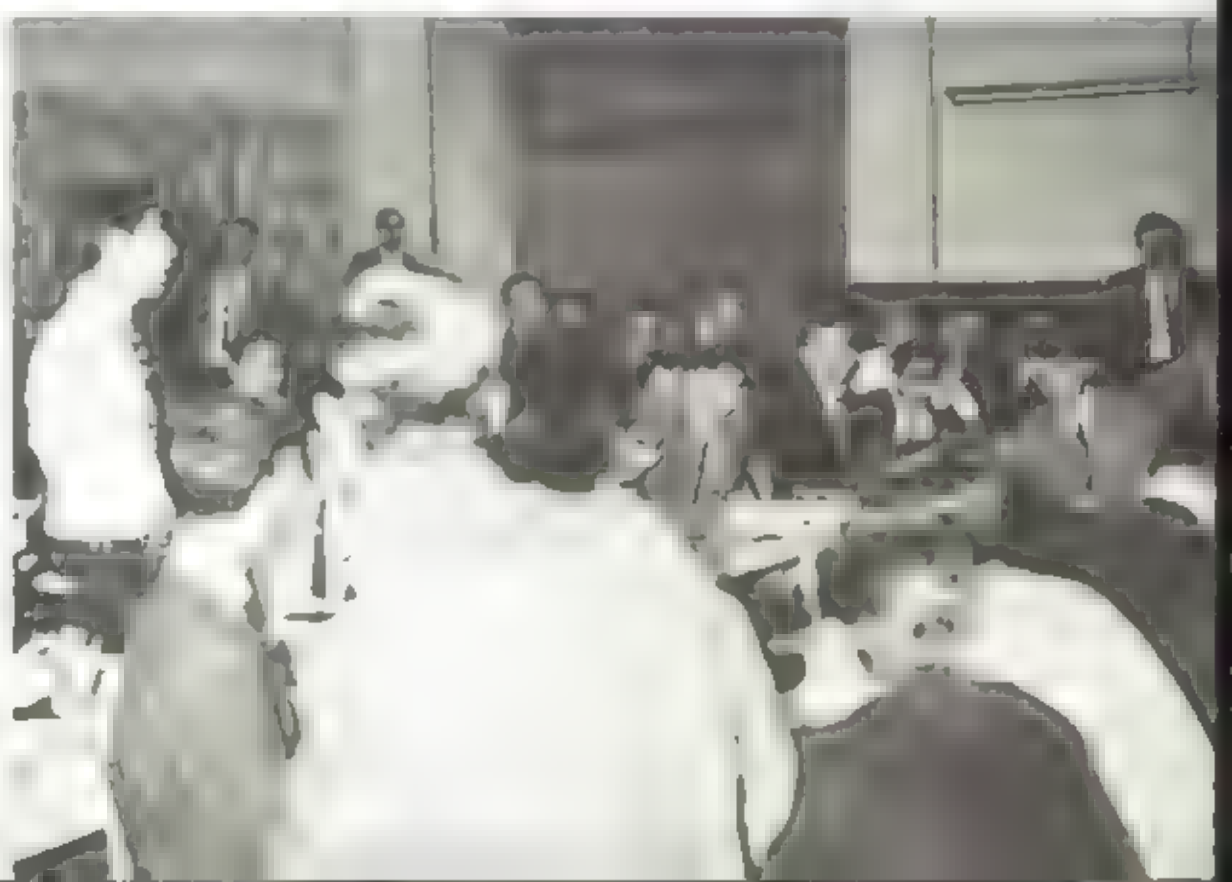

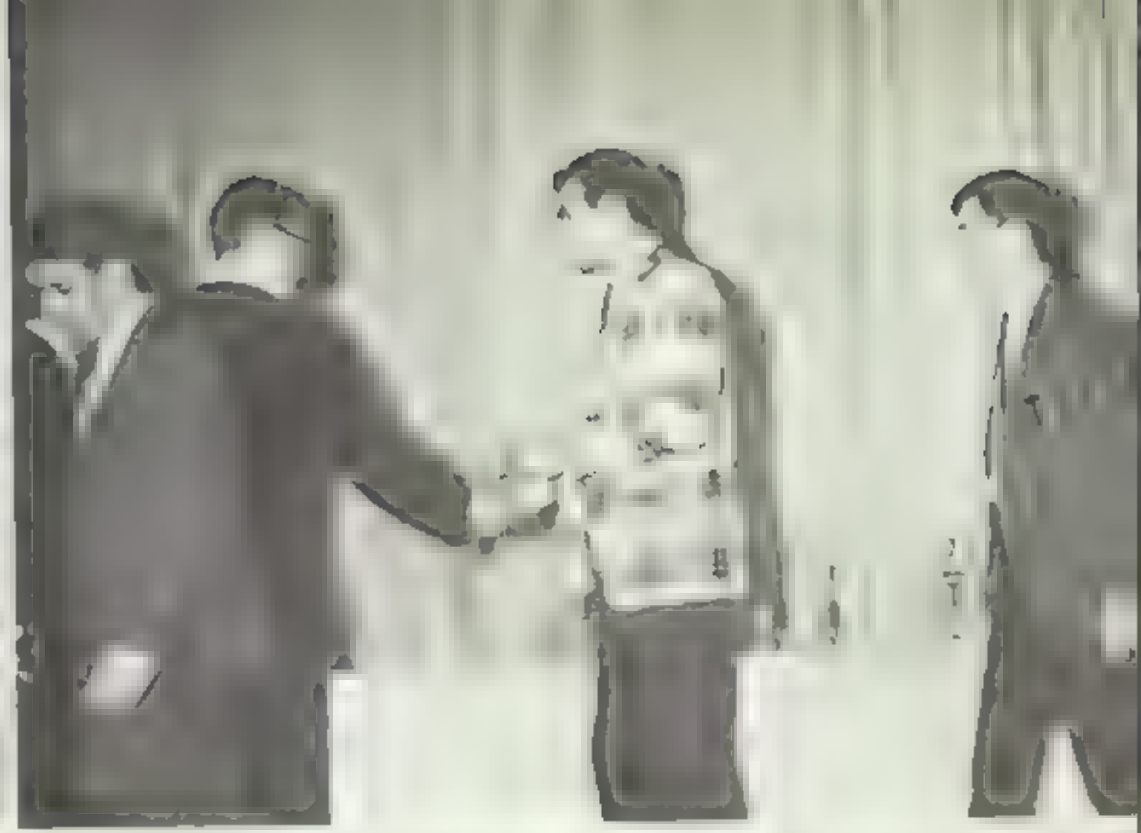

The student government of Xaverian High School is called the Student Activities Council. The purpose of SAC is to develop communication between faculty and students and to promote all school activities.

The six officers of SAC, elected by the student body, are Dave Naman, President; Ken Jasinski, Vice President; Lou Catti, Second Vice President; Mark Morales, Secretary; Ed Assile, Treasurer; and

Fred Luzzi, Historian. The rest of SAC consists of the chairman of the religious, social, athletic, cultural, and publications committees, and one representative from each homeroom of all four years.

SAC has continued its high standard of success with such innovations as the budget system for each committee and of promoting senior privileges. Xaverian has every right to take pride in its student government.

S.A.C.

Since 1957, the Xaverian Circle has fostered a spirit of cooperation among students, parents, and teachers, and it has added much to the luster of the image that Xaverian presents to the community. This year the Circle has sponsored such varied activities as the Father and Son Night, the Parents' Social, the Communion Breakfast, the Freshman and Senior Mothers' Teas, and of course, the annual Card Party.

The Class of '66 wishes to express its gratitude to the Xaverian Circle for its outstanding contribution, both moral and financial, to the betterment of Xaverian High.

Assemblies

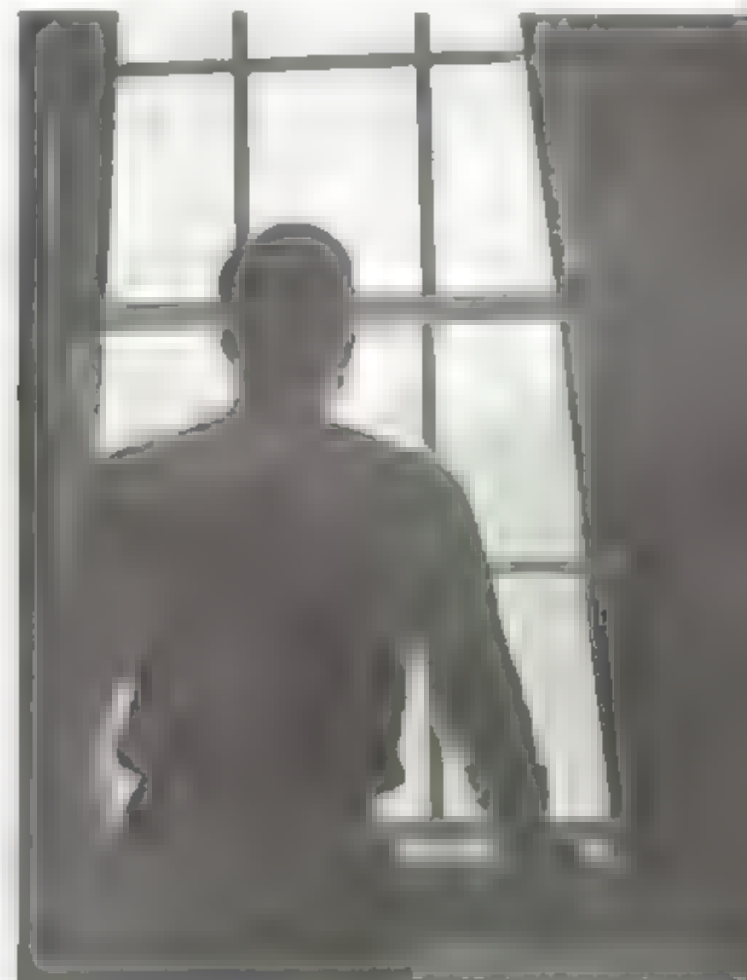

The Cultural Committee of the Student Activities Council has provided many services for the school, the student body, and the student council. A full program of assemblies was presented during the year including the Orientation Assembly, "Submerged (a one-act play by the Dramatics Society), the High School Inter-Racial Committee Assembly, the Christmas Assembly, the Talent Assembly, the Nominations Assembly, and the Awards Assembly. Several special assemblies were presented featuring performances by the Metropolitan Opera and artists from the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

Retreats

There were eight groups of retreatants this year, sent to various parts of New York and Connecticut. The Retreat Houses were Manresa in Ridgefield, Connecticut, Gonzaga in Montoe, New York, and St. Gabriels on Shelter Island, New York. The Retreats took place in September (2 groups), February (3 groups), and May (3 groups). Many Faculty members accompanied the retreatants, among them Brothers Michael, Venard, Bonaventure, Ramon, Angelus, and Gavril and Mr. Garcia. These retreats gave the students an opportunity to come to terms with themselves and God in a spiritual environment. Upon returning home after a weekend of thought and reflection, almost all were happy that they had the experience of a closed retreat.

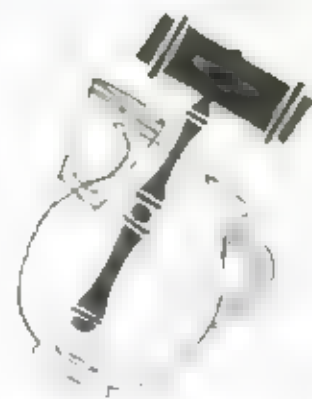

SPEECH

DEBATE

This year turned out to be a very successful one for the Rykenites. Under the direction of Br. Carl, the moderator, Mr. John Byrne, the Varsity Debate Coach, and Mr. Vincent Picardi, the debators won 5 First Places and 3 Second Places. Besides winning 15 school trophies and 35 individual ones, three students qualified to compete in the Nationals in Miami. The three were Raymond Mollica, Russ Mackechmie, and Richard Ferrugio who placed third in Original Oratory. Richard also came in first in the State in Original Oratory held at Albany. This qualified him to go to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

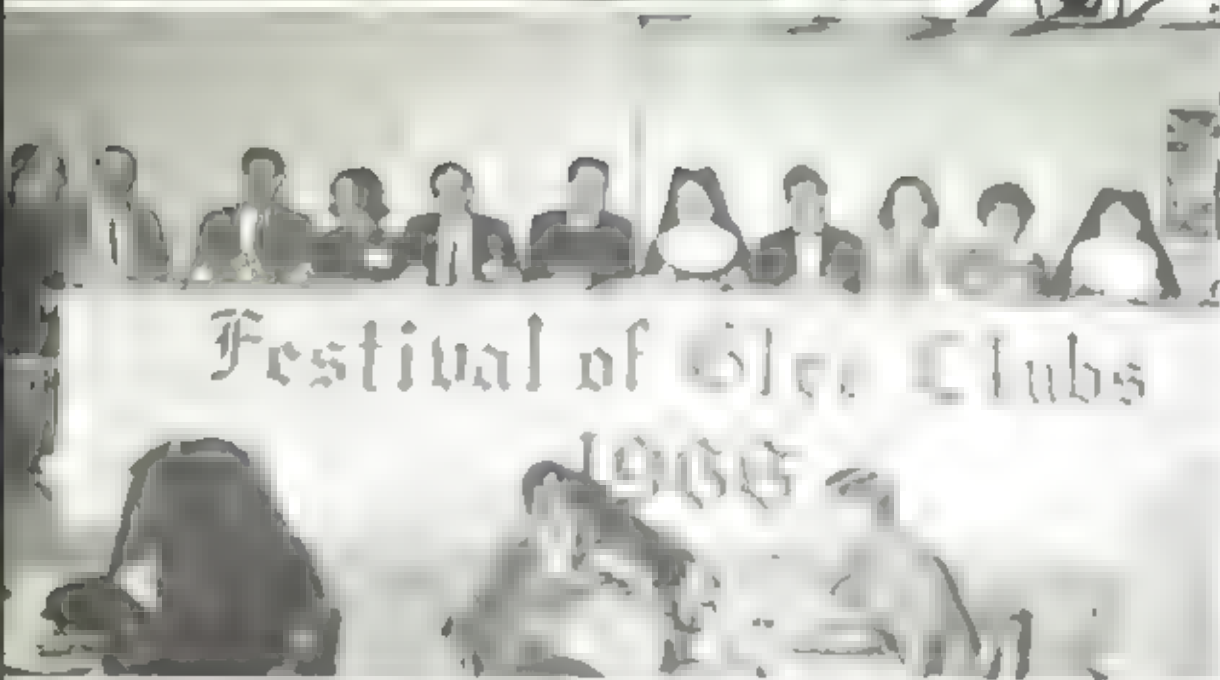

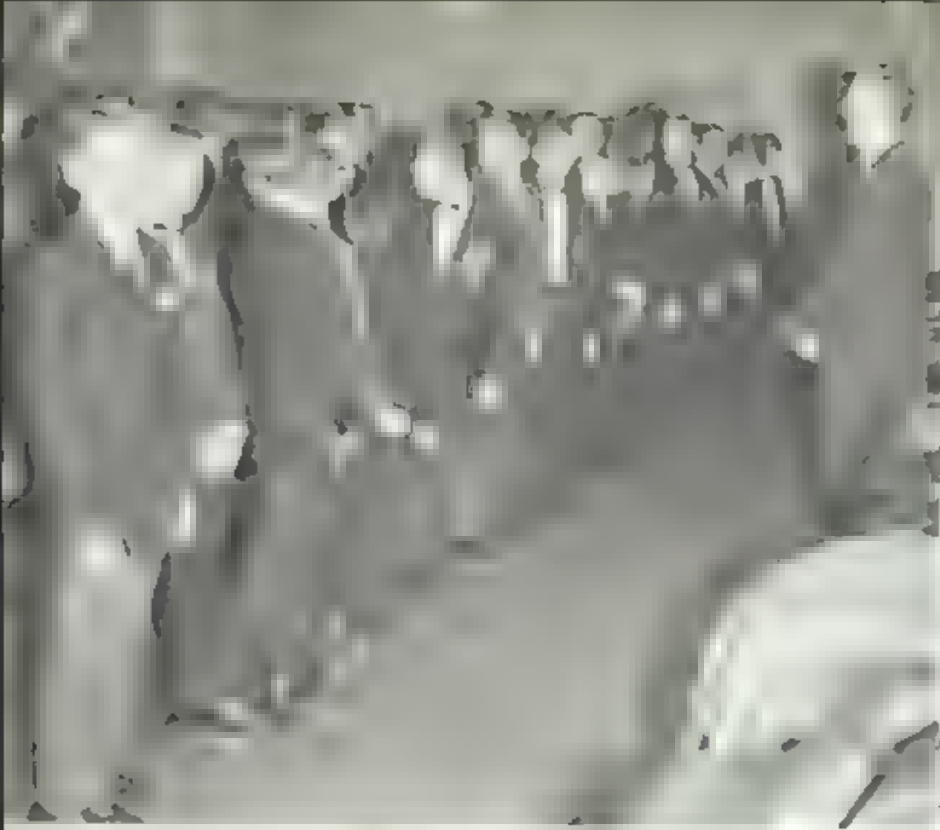

In the Invitational Debate Tournament held at Georgetown, Xaverian ranked in the top 15 out of 200 schools in the nation. This year for the first time the achievements of the Rykenites have been officially recognized by the school with the awarding of Varsity Letters to those deserving members.

Sodality

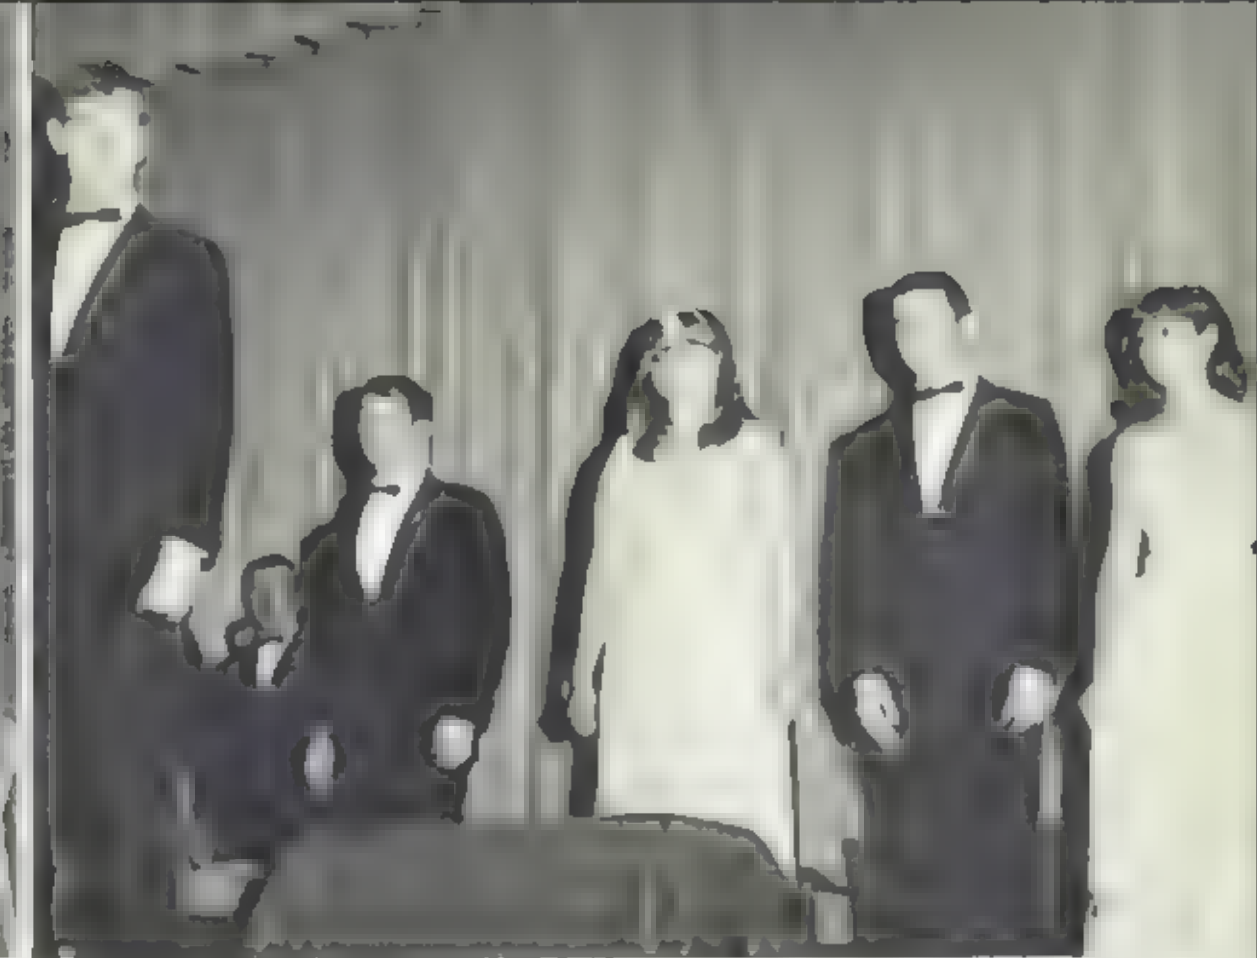

The purpose of the Sodality is to provide the student body with an opportunity of improving their spiritual life through devotion to Christ and His Blessed Mother. Besides the weekly meetings conducted by John Ferraro, Steve DeWolfe, and the moderator, Br. Bonaventure, the Sodality conducted religious devotions in the chapel, various mission drives, and the Ecumenical Dialogue with youth members of St. John's Episcopal Church. The year ended with the Seniors consecrating themselves to the Blessed Virgin.

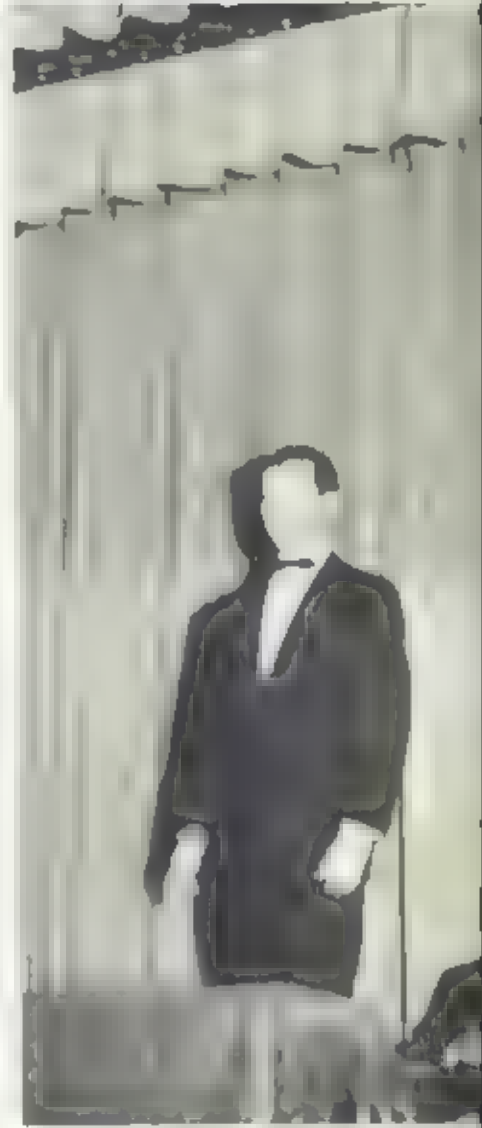

Under its new director, Mr. James Cullen, the Glee Club had an extremely successful season. Besides the customary Christmas Concert, Phil Lian arranged to have the Club unite its efforts with that of the Drama Society. The result was the skit at the Christmas Assembly and the musical presentation Testament of Freedom in the play John Brown's Body. The climax of the season was the Seventh Annual Choral Music Festival. The Festival, held with six other high schools, spanned a weekend and consisted of Mass, a hootenanny, dinner, a dance, and of course, the concert. Credit is due to all the members of the Glee Club for providing Xaverian with many hours of enjoyment.

Drama

This years Drama activities proved to be the most diversified in Xaverian's history. The actors started off with a one-act tragedy entitled, "Submerged". It's success caused the students to look forward to the next production which came at Christmas when the Drama Society participated in an assembly with the Speech and Glee Clubs. The thespians brought their year to a close with the unique drama, "John Brown's Body", with the Glee Club appearing also. All three endeavors were firsts for the club and X. H. S. The Drama Society is now established as an extremely active and vital organization in the school.

STAG DANCES

October 31st

January 16th

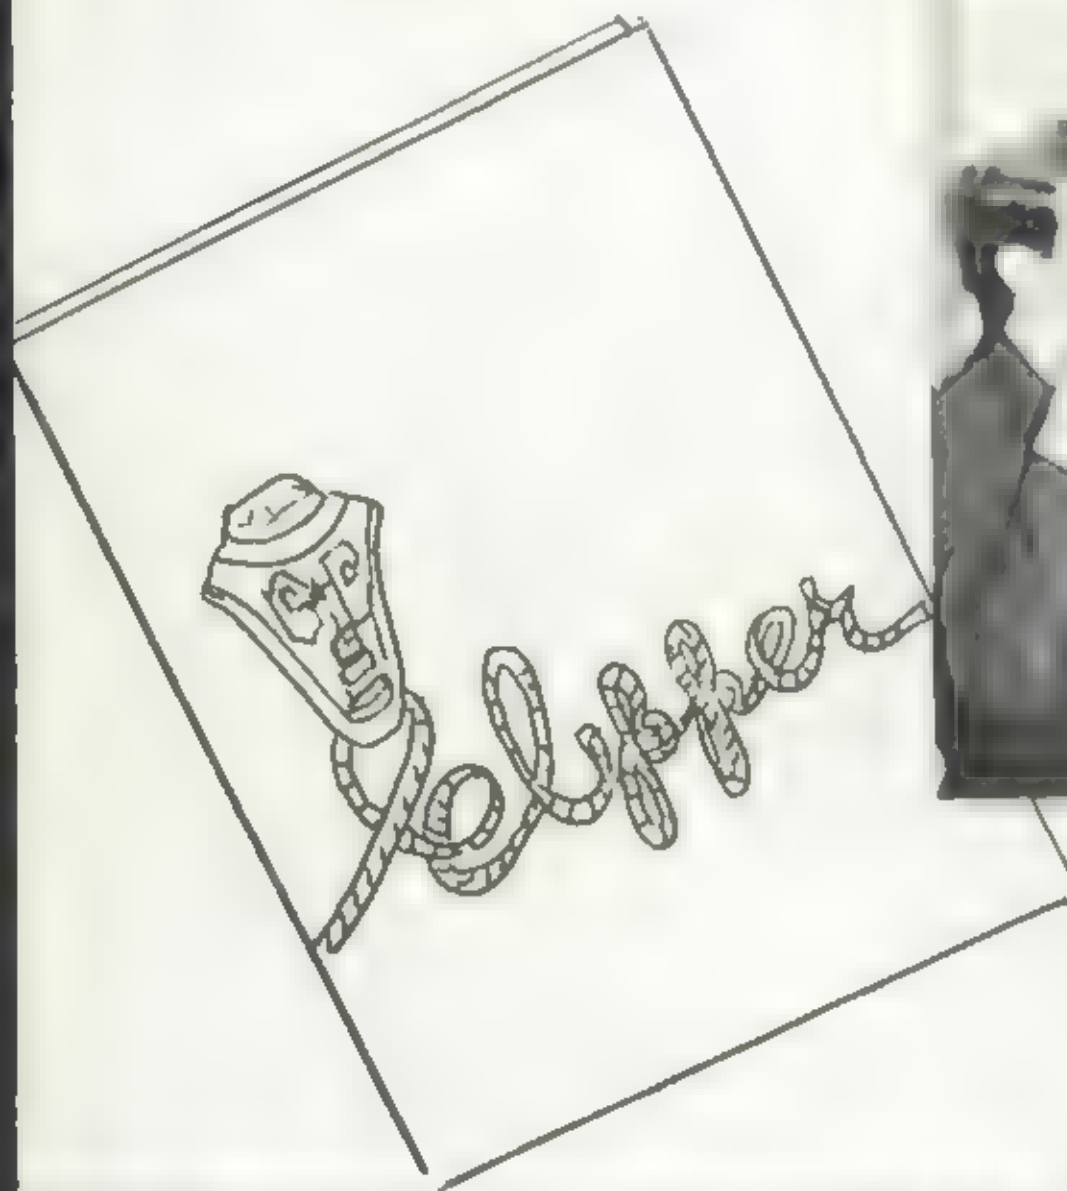

March 12th

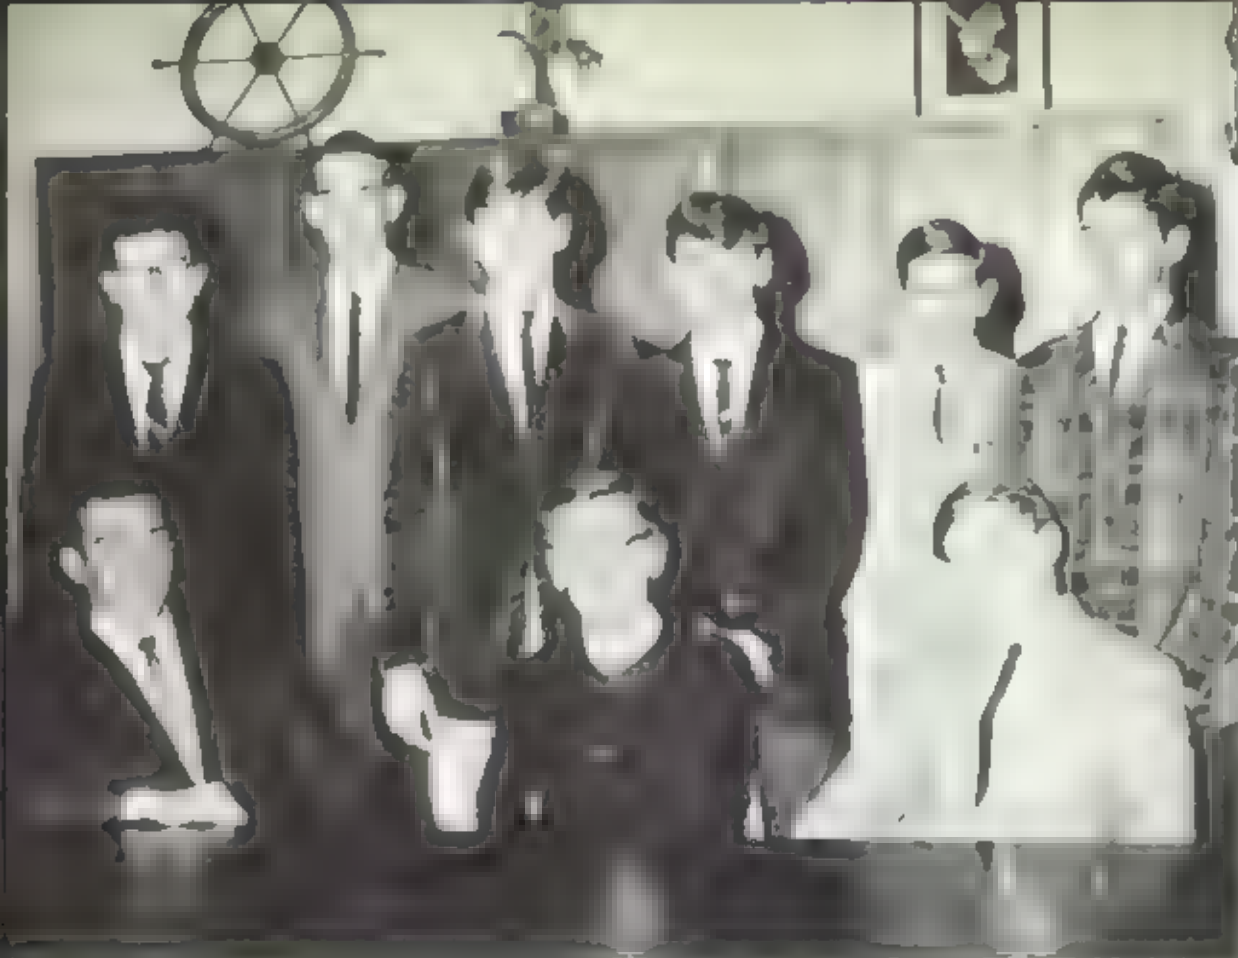

This year has seen the X-Press depend more on the opinions and literary ingenuity of its contributors than on the rehashing of school information which is already stale because of the inherent difficulties in publishing only four times annually. James McGonigle, Editor-in-Chief, engineered the first three magazines with the technical assistance of Stephen Sinclair and the fine writing of Tom Siolek, Joe Holub, Charles Wendel, Richard Paris and John McBrearty. Its second annual literary contest gathered enough poetry, short stories, and outstanding essays to complete the Xaverian Writer, the X-Press' literary annual.

As you have already noticed, this year's edition is somewhat different from the Clipper's of previous years. With the Class of 1966 came several changes to the year-book, a new moderator, Brother Francis, and a new approach in format. Under the title of a Senior Memory Book, the staff of the Clipper has tried to present to the students, in an interesting and entertaining manner, the story of the year 1965-1966. Thanks is due to this year's staff which consisted of Kevin Greene, editor, Richard Rubes, assistant editor, Joseph Ruiz, Frank Ridzi, John D'Emic, Anthony Colantuono, Edward Latimer and Barry Fitzpatrick.

Local

Throughout the year, the Local presented the students with the school events of the week. Publications Co-Chairmen Sal Chiaramida and Steve Daly with the guidance of Brother Ramon and Brother Regis prior to his mission assignment kept in forefront the opinions and accomplishments of SAC and student activities. The success of the Local was due to the hard work Tom Gulman, Tom Dunne, Steve Harrison, Frank "Hippus" Nigro, Steve Casalaro, Tony Filardi, and Bill Hederman.

Spanish Club

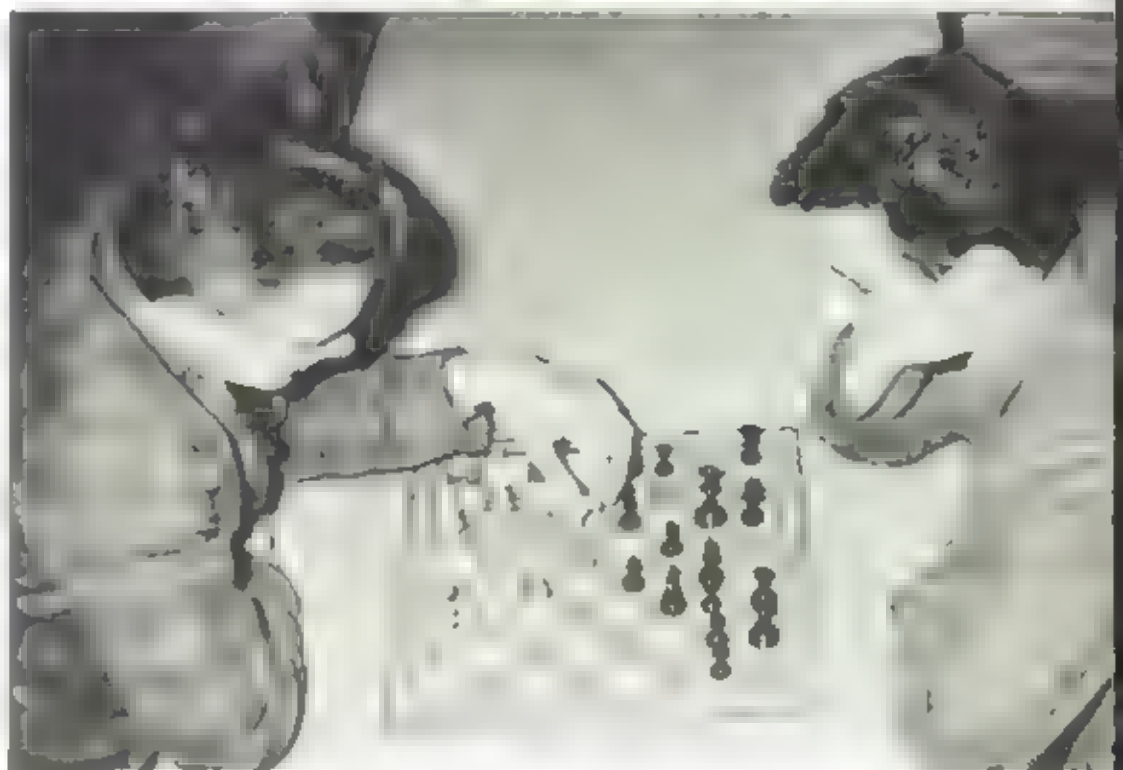

The understanding and appreciation of Spanish culture and civilization is the purpose of the Spanish Club. Under the leadership of Senor Garcia and the officers: Len Kavanaugh, Joe Holub, Pat Grillo and John Jensen, the Club held special classes for instruction in the Spanish language, presented Spanish films, and ended the year with a gala fiesta.

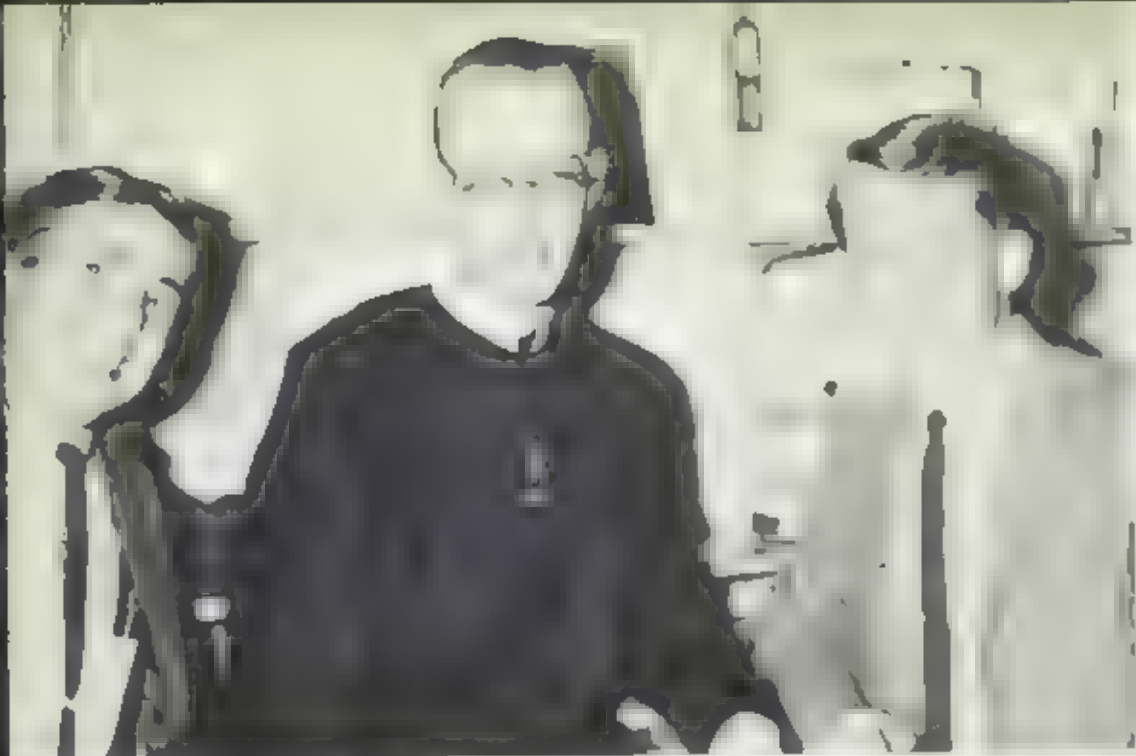

Chess Club

Xaverian's Chess Club, together with those of Xavier, Bishop Loughlin, Bishop Molloy, and Bishop Ford, participates in the Interscholastic Catholic Chess League. The Varsity team of Chris Harrington, Charles Cortese, and Carl Fehlandt finished a close second behind Xavier, while the Junior Varsity, consisting of Jim McGonigle, John Gardella, and Tony Bonica, tied Xavier for the first place. Among the individual achievements, Charles Cortese was the runner-up for the Most Valuable Player in the Varsity division, and Jim McGonigle had the same honor in the Junior Varsity division. Chris Harrington is the president of both the Interscholastic Catholic Chess League and the Xaverian Chess Club. In the school tournament, Jim Banks, a sophomore, won the Freshman-Sophomore Division while Arthur Ryniker was the runner-up.

The Math Club, in the first year of divided competition, Varsity and Junior Varsity fared very well. The Varsity, due to a real team effort, placed second in the Brooklyn-Queens league. The Junior Varsity won their division in their league. In the St. Francis College Mathematics Contest, Xaverian's mathletes placed second with three men in the top ten, Brian Hickie, Bill Hederman and Ray Lorenzo. In the only other competition outside the league, the Xaverian Brothers High School Contest, Xaverian won third place. The season was as prosperous a one as the club has ever had.

LIBRARY CLUB

The student librarians of Xaverian are responsible for keeping the library running smoothly by checking out books and returning them to the shelves. While these boys are busy in the library Brother Venard, the librarian and Library Club moderator, and Mrs. O'Connell, his secretary, are working diligently stamping, cataloging, and ordering new books to keep our library up to date. The Senior members are Carlos Ashroawe, Louis DeNino, Robert Gorgia, and Vincent Vivona.

"... There will be times when we are faced with problems, the solutions to which we may not be able to reach alone. In these situations, it is not enough to rely on our own judgment; we should not be afraid to seek advice. . . .

But, perhaps, there is one thing further we can ask particularly of us here, men of Christian background. At Xaverian, we have been given training in addition to that required for the development of our intellect and reasoning powers. We have been instructed in the existence of a loving providential God. Therefore when we act, it should be with a confidence, a Christian confidence which is not a proud dependence on self, but a trust in the abilities given to us by God, and a trust in God, the giver of these abilities."

Valedictory address of John McBrearty

"On this eventful evening, with high hopes, vast expectations, and a strong sense of accomplishment, we begin a new and challenging period in our lives, but we also conclude a challenging period, our four years at Xaverian. . . .

And so, fellow graduates, while all those we give thanks to tonight have helped us become, hopefully, mature, educated, Christian gentlemen, time, unnoticed, has turned our dream of graduation into a reality."

Salutatory Address of Kenneth Jasinski

Bon Voyage!

The accomplishments of the Class of '66 have been numerous and varied from scholastic through religious to athletic. We have received 188 scholarships from such colleges and universities as Harvard, Columbia, Pennsylvania, M.I.T., Princeton, Cooper Union, N.Y.U., Georgetown, and Notre Dame. Junior Brian Hickie graduated with the Class of '66 and has been granted a scholarship to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Five graduates have joined the Xaverian Brothers. The Senior Prom and the stag and couples' dances throughout the year have been tremendously successful. Our basketball team came in third for the season, and the baseball team won the Brooklyn Championship.

Last, and by no means least, is the accomplishment of the Clipper. Prior to this year, the Clipper was a yearbook for the entire student body, but this edition inaugurates a new concept, a senior memory book. The staff of the Clipper is proud of this accomplishment and will feel it has fulfilled its obligation if this yearbook does encourage memories of Xaverian to the Class of '66 each time this book is reread. The Clipper staff wishes to express its sincerest thanks to the Xaverian Administration, the faculty, and the entire student body, in particular to the Class of '66 for all its cooperation in the publication of the Clipper.
